Council, Staff and Citizen Comments:

Tracy Koranda, City Clerk, reminded everyone that there will be no City Council meeting for the next two weeks and that the next meeting will be on July 8, 2014.

Kim Hankins, Public Safety Director, explained how a 47-year-old heart attack victim was miraculously saved thanks to the efforts of the Fire Department and EMT personnel.

Lew Steinbrecher, City Administrator, stated that Bob Fielding, paramedic, was named Employee of the Quarter.

Mayor Raes commended everyone for a great job with the Employee Picnic.

Alderman Brown also commended everyone for a great job with the Employee Picnic.

Alderman Turner thanked everyone who helped with the Riverside Safety Park.

Alderman Schoonmaker, stated that his neighbor wished to express thanks to the Fire Department for their response to and handling of her husband's death.

Tom Keith, 5318 28th Avenue, expressed his disagreement with fluoridating of the City's water.

Alderman Knaack expressed thanks for all those involved with the Hot Rod Power Tour and stated that he has received numerous requests for more involvement by the City with such events.

On motion of Alderman Knaack, Seconded by Alderman Parker, Council adjourned at 6:54 p.m.

The next regularly scheduled City Council meeting is on July 8, 2014.

Respectfully submitted,

Tracy A. Koranda
City Clerk
