

July 28-August 1, 2014

Jamie Young, an assistant coach for the 17-Time NBA Champion Boston Celtics, will host a youth basketball academy at the PepsiCo Center in Rock Island, IL during the week of July 28-August 1, 2014. He will be joined by an experienced coaching staff from across the country to help develop the fundamental basketball skills - shooting, passing, dribbling, rebounding and defense. These fundamentals of the game will be practiced through a variety of drills, contests and games.

Registration fees for this camp will benefit Erika Kate Hope Alliance, a non-profit organization headquartered in Muscatine, IA, named in memory of 4 year old Erika Kate Maynard, who died shortly after a heart transplant in 2006. The Foundation is dedicated to its mission: helping ease the emotional, spiritual, and financial burdens borne by parents of children with life threatening heart conditions.

- Cost: $125 per participant (includes basketball and t-shirt)
- Camp Times: 9am-noon (boys/girls, grades 2-5) & 1pm-4pm (boys/girls, grades 6-8)

Stay connected with camp developments and news on Twitter @YoungHopeBBall and our Facebook Page, Young Hope Basketball Academy.

For more information, contact:

Tanya Marx
309-798-7925
Tanya.marx@erikakate.org
www.erikakate.org

REGISTRATION INFO:

To register, please contact the Moline Parks & Rec. Department at 524-2424 or online at www.molineparks.com.

Class Codes: 451000-09 (2nd-5th Grades)
451000-10 (6th - 8th Grades)