Harassment In The Workplace: What Every Employee Should Know

9:00 AM – 12:00 PM

by: Keisha Nelson, J.D., attorney, Illinois Department of Human Rights' Institute for Training and Development

This seminar will examine harassment in its many forms, one of the most destructive workplace issues faced by employers today, including harassment based on sex, race, color, national origin, religion, gender, disability, age and others. This presentation can help identify, prevent and eliminate harassment and unfavorable workplace outcomes such as legal liability, emotional stress, lower employee morale and reduced productivity.

*INCLUDES CATERED BOX LUNCH, COFFEE AND COLD BEVERAGES 12:00 PM – 1:00PM

SEMINAR LUNCH RESERVATIONS REQUIRED BY OCTOBER 28.

Gender Identity and Sexual Orientation in the Workplace: Can't We All Just Get Along?

1:00 PM – 4:00 PM

by: Shannon Sullivan, MPH, Executive Director, Illinois Safe Schools Alliance.

Seeking to bridge gaps between myth and fact pertaining to gender identity and sexual orientation in the workplace, this training will explore why we fear that which is different and look at alternatives to fear and intolerance by engaging in meaningful dialogue and activities designed to dispel myths of people who are perceived differently.
